CHAS. MCCLINTOCK

Tea-Coffee-Crockery

815 Kansas Avenue

Sabra Goodlander, Miss Grace Tinkham, Miss Camilla Pearson, and Miss Della Ryan.

Miss Gertrude Clevenger will give a breakfast at the Country club Monday for Miss Hoch and her house party.

"Mrs. L. Beard announces the marriage of her daughter, Grace Mary, to Mr. Lynn William Bloom, January 9, 1936, at Kansas City." The above announcement was issued today, over a month following the event and it is a complete surprise to the many friends. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father a very quiet wedding had been planned to occur at the residence in this city. But on January 9, the bride and groom, who are both with friends, were in Kansas City on a visit, decided to have the ceremony performed while there, by Dr. M. H. S. Hughes of the Independence Avenue church, who is a friend of both families. The bride and groom decided to keep the wedding a secret until the formal announcements were ready to send out, and they have succeeded remarkably well. The bride is one of Topeka's most accomplished young ladies, and is from one of the most prominent families. She attended the Christian college at Columbia, Mo., for one year, and last spring was graduated from the school of music of Washburn college. She has been a member of the Music Study club for a number of years and is instructor of a class of students in piano. Mr. Bloom is a graduate of Baker university, Baldwin, Kan., of the class of '06, a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity, and is a member of the choir at the First Methodist church of this city. He is employed on the business staff of the Topeka State Journal. Mr. and Mrs. Bloom left today for a short wedding trip to St. Louis and will be at home at 1110 Tyler street after March 1.

There will be a subscription dance at the Country club tonight.

A Washburn chap got in bad with all the girls he knew and they cut him dead every time they met him. "There's one good thing about it," he said to a girl, "it begins to get around me, I gently whenever they see me coming near them and if I stick around enough I think there'll be fewer flunks the spring term than usual."

Mexican Herald: One of the delightful affairs of the week was the bridge party given Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Theodore Graham Wear by Mrs. Thomas Hancock Frost, at her home on Avenida de Puebla, Colonia Roma.

Mrs. H. O. Spencer, Mrs. A. H. Connelly and Mrs. Harry Bones Walker of Kansas City, Mrs. Clarence Hall and Mrs. George A. Esterly of Lawrence and Mrs. Francis P. Russell of St. Louis, who are in town for the Valentine receptions at the home of Mrs. Frank M. Bonebrake today and tomorrow and for their hostesses, Mrs. Bonebrake, Mrs. James B. Hayden, Mrs. W. F. Hughes and Mrs. Armin A. Welsch. The entertainment was a patriotic in recognition of the birthday of Abraham Lincoln to whom at the end of the supper every one gave a Valentine. The lights were turned to bottom with candles and the table and dining room decorations were in red.

There's more of this winter coming and next winter to think of. Better take advantage of Pickens' half price sale of all street and dress hats this week.

Much interest is being shown by Topeka girls and women who are owners of dogs in the second annual Topeka bench show at the Auditorium from the 26th to the 29th inclusive. The Elks club has offered a cup in the ladies' class for which there will doubtless be a sharp competition.

A Washburn man "pinched" in a grocery store and hung up in his frat house a sign which reads "Nuts of All Kinds."
